NEIGHBORHOOD SOUP NIGHT!

By Noland Hoshino

You' might have heard that there's been a monthly gathering of people in the Northwest Neighborhood enjoying food, wine, desserts and each other's company. You've heard right! It's called "Northwest Neighborhood Association (NWNA) Soup Night!" and it's a success!

NWNA Soup Night is a way for the Northwest Neighborhood to stay connected with our neighbors during the cold winter months, to get to know each other, and to give you a break from cooking. Soup night builds community, engages conversations and maybe start collaborations – these things are essential for a stronger, better neighborhood.

The concept is pretty easy. Someone in the neighborhood makes a pot of soup and neighbors bring their empty bowls, spoons, and a side dish to share.
